Why I Call Myself a Zionist and Not Just a Lover or Supporter of Israel with Gil Troy

Professor of History at McGill University and a Shalom Hartman Engaging Israel Research Fellow in Jerusalem

Thursday • February 26 • 7:30 pm EST

(This program will be fully captioned.)

Hadassah's Defining Zionism in the 21st Century Series is an online monthly program that creates a welcoming opportunity for everyone to explore various perspectives of Zionism from the comfort of home. This program is free of charge and open to the community.

Gil Troy is Professor of History at McGill University and a Shalom Hartman Engaging Israel Research Fellow in Jerusalem. Gil received his bachelor's, master's, and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard University, where he taught history and literature for two years. He is the author of eight books, including Moynihan's Moment: America's Fight against Zionism as Racism and the bestselling Why I Am a Zionist: Israel, Jewish Identity and the Challenges of Today. Troy writes regularly for the Jerusalem Post, Open Zion, the Jewish Week, and the Canadian Jewish News. He has been an occasional contributor to the "Campaign Stops" section of the New York Times and has been widely published and quoted in the American and Canadian media. Troy has been extensively involved in the Jewish community, and the worldwide fight against the delegitimization of Israel. As an expert in informal Jewish education, he is chairman of the Birthright Israel International Education Committee. Gil is the former mazkir of Queens Region Young Judaea and was a longtime merakez and educational director at Camp Tel Yehuda. He also attended Machon/Year Course.
