(This program will be fully captioned.)

Hadassah's Defining Zionism in the 21st Century Series is an online monthly program that creates a welcoming opportunity for everyone to explore various perspectives of Zionism from the comfort of home. This program is free of charge and open to the community.

Eric Fingerhut was appointed president of Hillel in July, 2013 as the organization began its 90th year. He has devoted his entire professional life to public service and higher education. Fingerhut represented Ohio as a U.S. Congressman in 1993-4. For nine years, 1997-2006, he served as an Ohio state senator. He was Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents, leading Ohio's system of public universities and colleges, from 2007-11. An innovative leader and ardent advocate of higher education, he developed strategies to prepare students for 21st century jobs. Most recently, Fingerhut was Corporate Vice President of Education and STEM Learning business at Battelle, the world's largest independent research and development organization, with 22,000 employees worldwide. He holds a bachelor's degree from Northwestern University and a juris doctorate from Stanford University Law School.
