A WHOLE LOAF by S. Y. AGNON

Presented by

EDNA APHEK

Join us for a discussion of a short, dream-like story by Nobel Prize winner S.Y. AGNON.

The story "A WHOLE LOAF" is part of Agnon's master work, The Book of Deeds.

What is the "whole loaf" in the title of the story?

Is Agnon reminding us that the Sabbath blessing may be recited only over a loaf that is whole, not cut?

Should we interpret the phrase in light of the rabbinic injunction to make the blessing over two loaves?

Or are we talking about the greedy and egotistical nature of the narrator who will settle for nothing less than "a whole loaf"?

Sequoia Hadassah welcomes back master teacher Prof. Edna Aphek for another popular and insightful class.
