

SEQUOIA HADASSAH CLASS

YOSSEL BIRSTEIN

Presented by

EDNA APHEK

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22nd

Congregation Beth Am

Classroom 15

10:30 a.m. - Noon

Join us for a discussion of three very short stories by Yossel Birstein. Birstein is a master of short story writing, published in both Hebrew and Yiddish. His stories, sometimes tragic but often funny and entertaining, look at daily matters from a unique point of view.

"I consider Yossel Birstein one of the great Jewish authors of the 20th century and I'm talking about the scale of Kafka and Agnon"
Menachem Perry, professor and critic, Tel Aviv University

Sequoia Hadassah is thrilled to welcome back master teacher Edna Aphek for another one of her popular and insightful classes.

To RSVP and for stories, contact Leah at SequoiaChapterRSVP@Hadassah.org

Donation to Hadassah: $15

