

CLASS OF THE MONTH

HEBREW AUTHORS

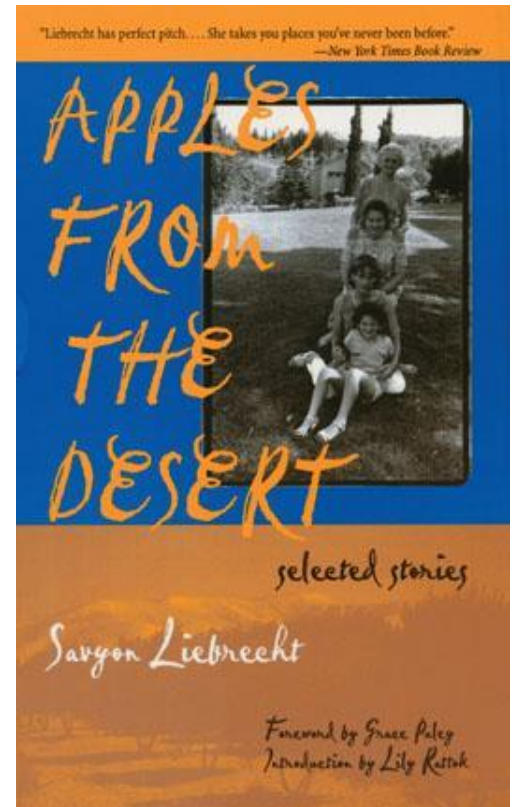

WITH

PROFESSOR EDNA APHEK

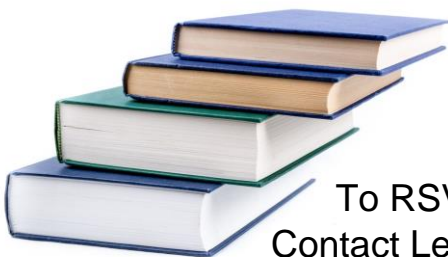

Professor Edna Aphek will discuss Savion Liebrecht's story, "Hayuta's Engagement Party."

The story focuses on the conflict between the generations in Israel: that of the grandfather who keeps living the horrors of the past (Hashoa) and his granddaughter who wants to lead a "normal life" and ignore the past. The conflict reaches a climax at the granddaughter's engagement party.

Professor Aphek is a linguist, lecturer, and researcher in Hebrew language, Literature and Israeli Culture.
