Ever wonder how picture books come to be? What's required to write one? Why they look the way they do? Caryn Huberman Yacowitz will give you a behind the scenes glance of the process, answer your questions and share some of her newest projects with you. You may never look at your children's or grandchildren's books in the same way again!

Caryn began writing books and plays for young people about 35 years ago. Her first book, a photo essay entitled "Onstage/ Backstage" takes place at the Palo Alto Children's Theater. Since then she has written more than 15 fiction and non-fiction books, as well as musical plays. "JEANS! The Musical," co-created with Diane Claerbout and Enid Davis, is based on the story of Levi Strauss and Jacob Davis and the pants that won the West and then the world. Caryn's first Jewish children's book, "I Know an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Dreidel," a funny Chanukah take, came out in 2014. It features parodies of famous works of art.
