PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello again, Ladies,

The holidays have come to an end and now it is time to start another round.

Before we do, I would like to tall you about a couple of things I heard and internalized this holiday season.

One of these things was a sermon that Rabbi Agin shared with us. He started by telling us about a Jewish dog that could talk; unfortunately, the dog was hard of hearing. So when his owner said to him "Fetch!" the dog answered him with a long recital of complaints because, due to being hard of hearing, the dog thought his master said "Kvetch!"

The Sermon's title was "Thou Shall not Kvetch."

The next item is a book review about all the technological advances that have been developed in Israel. The title of this book is "Thou Shall Innovate."

The next sermon was about what to do when you are "drowning in troubles." What came with that was a list of actions that you may take while you are praying to G-d. The suggested title of that sermon should be Thou Shall Help Yourself."

Now may I add a couple of more "Thou Shalls..."

"Thou Shall attend all Hadassah meetings" And.....

"Thou shall find a New and Improved President."

Odette

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

It is doubtful that any one of us doesn't know someone who has had this disease.

So, what can we do? Perform a Breast Self-Exam (BSE) each month; have your doctor perform a routine clinical breast exam at your annual physical; get a mammogram regularly— EARLY DETECTION IS KEY!!

Remind your friends and relatives to do these things, too. AND, you've surely heard by now that MEN CAN GET BREAST CANCER TOO! So, they also need to be aware.

One more thing: You can help underprivileged women to get mammograms by going to <http://thebreastcancersite.com> and clicking on "Donate a Mammogram." It doesn't cost a thing except a minute of your time. Corporate sponsors/advertisers use the number of daily clicks to donate mammograms in exchange for advertising. You can do this every day! Adding it to your "favorites" list makes it even easier.

We are pleased to announce that Jeanette Burke has agreed to be our Education V.P.

As you may know, she has a background in library science and is the librarian for the Temple.

She is working on organizing the Temple Library.

We will soon be announcing the book we have chosen for our first book club meeting.
