Organized by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum "Propaganda," Adolf Hitler wrote in 1924, is a truly terrible weapon in the hands of an expert." During the subsequent two decades, Nazi leaders showed the world bold, new ways to use it. State of Deception: The Power of Nazi Propaganda is a traveling exhibition produced by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. It examines how the Nazis used propaganda to win broad voter support in Germany's young democracy after World War I, implement radical programs under the party's dictatorship in the 1930s, and justify war and mass murder.

Meet in the lobby of the Missouri History Museum and tour the exhibit together. Dinner and discussion to follow at The Boat House Restaurant in Forest Park.

The museum tour is free and dinner is "Dutch Treat"
