The Mayer May House was built in 1908, and purchased and meticulously restored by Steelcase and opened 1987.

Today, complete with original furnishings and faithfully executed reproductions, the Mayer May house provides the rare opportunity to experience a Prairie house exactly as Frank Lloyd Wright intended.

The Steelcase and Frank Lloyd Wright connection began in 1936 when Steelcase was contracted to manufacture Wright-designed furniture for the Johnson Wax Administration Building in Racine, Wisconsin. Additionally, the Mayer May House is owned and maintained by Steelcase today. There will be a 90 minute tour.

Meijer Gardens - More than four years in the making: On June 13, 2015 the Richard and Helen DeVos Japanese Garden opened its magnificent Main Gate to visitors, welcoming a world of timeless tranquility, simplicity and beauty are the very essence of a Japanese garden. Fred and Lena Meijer had long appreciated the traditions and experiences of Japanese gardens, so in 2009 they asked about adding one to Meijer Gardens. You will be able to tour the entire gardens.

Ferris Coffee - explore the timeless tradition of blending specialty coffees. We will have a one hour tour and learn about the process of growing coffee and tour the roasting facility while sampling coffee along the way.
