

HADASSAH GOES TO THE DIA
SPECIAL EXHIBIT
DANCE: AMERICAN ART 1830-1960

More than 90 of America's finest paintings, sculptures, photographs, and costumes relating to dance from 1820 to 1960, brought together for the first time to demonstrate the central place of dance to America's artistic imagination. Works are from the DIA and other leading American and international museums as well as from private collections.

Thursday, June 2, 2016

10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

Depart from Adat Shalom parking lot, 29901 Middlebelt

TOUR Includes:

- Transportation on a deluxe highway coach
- Admissions to the Dance: American Art exhibit
- Dining card ($10) to choose your lunch in cafeteria, eat at reserved tables
- Docent talk to precede entrance to exhibit

COST: $42 PER PERSON

$32 PER PERSON IF YOU ARE A DIA MEMBER (you will need your membership #)

RSVP. BY MAY 19, 2016, SPACE IS LIMITED. GUESTS WELCOME.

Questions? Call Linda Sherr 248-851-7757

Mail check payable to Hadassah to

Hadassah, 5030 Orchard Lake Rd., West Bloomfield, MI 48323

Name(s) _____

Phone Number _____ email _____

DIA membership card # _____

Amount Enclosed _____