About Barbara Sofer

You can view Barbara's website at <http://www.barbarasofer.com/>

Barbara Sofer is a prize-winning journalist, author and inspirational speaker who also serves as the Israel Director of Public Relations for Hadassah where she reports the stories of Hadassah's achievements in print and film. Her byline has appeared in the New York Times, Woman's Day, Reader's Digest, Parents, the Boston Globe as well as many other publications. She has written six books and contributed to others. She writes a popular weekend column for the Jerusalem Post that deals with the challenges and miracles of everyday life in Israel, where she moved from the United States 40 years ago.

As the Israel Director of Public Relations for Hadassah, Barbara has witnessed and documented the daily effort to create the "bridge to peace" within Jerusalem's biggest medical center. She has worked with top-tier media, including Sixty Minutes and Nightline in formulating programs that show Israel in a positive light. She has also contributed to the Emmy winning CNBC program "Jerusalem ER".
