Committed to creating an unforgettable dining experience for each and every guest, Chef Mimmo Alboumeh's contagious spirit has not only landed him a loyal following, but it's also earned him the title as one of Atlanta's most personable restaurateurs and chefs.

Owner of Red Pepper Taqueria in Buckhead and Decatur, Mimmo boasts more than 20 years of experience in the culinary industry. Born in Lebanon, he grew up in Spain and spent time in Italy before moving to Georgia. A trendsetter, Mimmo has also become known for his creative vision and ability to introduce new cooking and cocktail trends to the market.

Considered one of Atlanta's top dining destinations for Mexican cuisine, at Red Pepper Taqueria, Mimmo has redefined the typical Mexican dining experience by offering signature dishes bursting with flavor using locally sourced and organic ingredients, an unparalleled tequila selection, brunch options, signature cocktails and much more.

With a philanthropic heart, Mimmo is active in each community where he has a restaurant and regularly hosts charitable events and initiatives in an effort to give back.
