Chef Vincent Scafiti has been a professional in the food service industry since 1988. Self-taught, his training and expertise are in Classic French and Mediterranean cuisine.

Scafiti has been part of award winning culinary teams in a number of exclusive restaurants and resorts nationwide. This includes being Chef de Cuisine at The Left Bank Restaurant in Fort Lauderdale, Florida from 1997 to 2004. The Left Bank Restaurant has been repeatedly selected by Gourmet magazine, Bon Appetit, Conde Nast, and Travel and Leisure as one of the Top Ten Best Restaurants in America.

Scafiti has participated in demonstrations, exhibitions and seminars nationwide, including the International Food and Wine Expo in Aspen, Colorado.

Scafiti now resides in the mountains of North Georgia. He is the Executive Chef and Owner of The Farmhouse at Persimmon Creek, a small, upscale, Farmhouse Eatery which provides truly the finest and most unique Farm to Table Dining experience in the North-East Georgia Mountains.

Scafiti is enthusiastic about all things cuisine: his gastronomic creations are flavorful and innovative. They reflect both the fervor and zeal of his Sicilian upbringing.
