

Michelle Venter, Master of Ceremony

Broadcast Journalist & Food Enthusiast

Our Master of Ceremony is a newcomer to Atlanta, making our City her home after living between Los Angeles and Africa. Journalist and TV Producer Michelle Venter loves the business of television and telling entertaining stories. Which is why she is joining Hadassah to unpack the excitement of All Things Cooking for our live audience. Behind and in front of the lens for 25 years, Michelle has also authored a book on green-living, built an off-grid house and interviewed ALL of the Rolling Stones!

She has travelled the world working for Travel Channel where she enthusiastically covered restaurants and the art of cheffing. Michelle's been bitten on her arm by a cheetah while filming her show "Wild Limited" where she was known as the African version of Steve Irwin. Changing her bush-boots for high-heels, Michelle came in second competing in Strictly Come Dancing.

Having moved here 2 years ago, Michelle lives in Buckhead with her 7-year-old son Rainn, and her home-fix-it-up husband Riaan.
