Nicole Wiesen, Chef-testant

"What inspire me to cook is and was my abuela (grandmother). Although I never wanted to be in the kitchen as a child, I find myself gravitating towards it now that I am a mother and one who loves to entertain. I find myself envisioning the smells of my childhood as I am re-creating her favorite dishes or being inspired in creating new ones. I love to travel, music, being with family and friends."

Denise Marcellus-Brody, Sous Chef

"What inspires my cooking is that it reminds me of family traditions and friends. I grew up in a Latin household where the cocina "kitchen" was the hearth of the home. On my days off, I enjoy spending time with husband Burton and our extended family. I enjoy traveling, exploring towns and have adventures with my grandson Alex."

Kinneret Weismark, Runner

"I was born in 2005 in Jerusalem, Israel at Hadassah Hospital in Ein Karem. I love to cook, bake, and read. I also love Justin Bieber! The reason why I love cooking is that I can zone out and think about my day or what I am going to do. I like to have music on when I am cooking because I can dance while I am cooking and it makes it even more enjoyable. Something that I find challenging about cooking is that I can burn myself easily. I think that the easiest part of cooking is that most things do not take much time to cook which is good."
