Hiram Bingham IV, a hero, a man who cared about his fellow man. He was a courageous American diplomate who defied the U.S. State Department in order to rescue more than 2,000 French refugees from the Nazis. Among the rescued Jews was Marc Chagall. Hiram's son, Robert Kim Bingham, will talk about his father and the aftermath of his brave behavior.

Bella Chagall Meyer is a granddaughter of Mark Chagall. She presently lives in Greenwich Village, NYC. She will share information with us about her grandfather.
