From the Editor

Our Tu B'Shevat Seder and Installation of our Board on Jan. 16th showed where your dollars are going, celebrated Zionism, and made a generous donation to our neighbors in need through CDC (Community Development Corporation). Watch for our next Weekend Update in 2 weeks.

Progressive Dinner

Our annual Progressive Dinner is now scheduled for February 23rd at the home of Anne and Adrian Kroll, 20 Buckingham Drive at 7:00 pm. Beginning with drinks and hors d'oeuvres, you will then be invited to an intimate dinner with one of the host families and complete the evening with all for dessert and coffee. Couvert $118. per couple or $59/ per person. RSVP by Feb. 15th to Anne at 732-613-8687. See attached flyer for details.

Celebrate Tu B'Shevat and Installation of 2019 Board

Our annual celebration of Tu B' Shevat Seder on Wednesday, January 16th, was a delight. We celebrated Zionism, enjoyed food, wine and friendship while donating disposable diapers for our neighbors in need

OUTREACH

Jen-Eve Frace is delivering our acts of kindness from the Diaper Drive to CDC (Community Development Corp. through Anshe Emeth Memorial Temple). To combat Anti-Semitism we volunteer, advocate, and educate. Once we helped people because they were Jews. Now we help others because WE are Jews.
