

Jewish Federation
OF GREATER CHARLOTTE

Inspiration

Innovation

Imagination

Adult Learning

Celebrating Jewish Heritage Month

Thursday, May 24

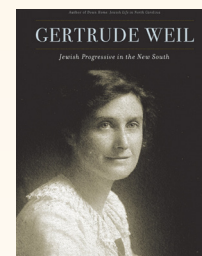

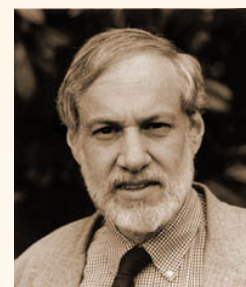

Featuring Leonard Rogoff

Author of Gertrude Weil

Jewish Progressive in the New South

7:00 - 9:00 pm

Sam Lerner Center for Cultural Arts

In honor of Jewish American Heritage Month, please join us for a book and author event featuring Leonard Rogoff, author of Gertrude Weil: Jewish Progressive in the New South.

Gertrude Weil –a native of Goldsboro, North Carolina– stood courageously at the forefront of a wide range of progressive and often controversial causes including women’s suffrage, labor reform and civil rights. As a Zionist, Weil also was the founding member of Goldsboro’s Hadassah chapter.

Sponsored by the Center for Jewish Education, the Robinson-Spangler Carolina Room-Charlotte Mecklenburg Library, and the Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah.

Contact: Debby Block, CJE Program Coordinator
704-944-6780
debby.block@jewishcharlotte.org

CHARLOTTE MECKLENBURG
LIBRARY

HADASSAH

jewishcharlotte.org/CJE