

WINSTON-SALEM CHAPTER OF HADASSAH LATE SUMMER NEWSLETTER

Kosher Honey For Rosh Hashanah Gifts

Final week to order honey for Rosh Hashanah. The honey is made available through Rosh Hashanah Honey (formerly Katelyn's Honey). Each jar of honey retails for $15, but with our Hadassah discount, your cost is $12.

Your order can be placed online through September 1st at: www.rhhoney.com
Please use the code w-shadassah to receive Hadassah's special pricing.

If you have any questions please contact: Shelley Starman-Onsrud at starmanway@gmail.com

Hadassah sponsors Temple Emanuel oneg this week

Friday, August 26 @ 5:30 PM with Kabbalat Shabbat service at 6:00 PM

Please join your chapter members this week and bring an item for the wine and cheese oneg (fruit, veggies & dip, cheese & crackers, hummus & pita, your favorite appetizer, or bottle of wine / non-alcoholic beverage).

Set-up 4:45-5:15 (RSVP to Lois.miller3@gmail.com)

Hadassah members will be invited to light the Shabbat candles.

Israel Trip Reflections

Sunday, September 18 @ 2:30 pm Temple Emanuel Social Hall

Israel Trip slide show prepared by Courtney Anthony, plus remarks from our "Pilgrims" & photos of our travels and experiences: Tel Aviv, Rony Rozen & technology, Shabbat prayers on the beach, Old Jaffa (meeting Maysa, an Israeli Arab Muslim woman), potato picking for Project Leket, visit to Israel's first Moshav Nahalal, singing L'Cha Dodi in Tzvat, Kibbutz Guest House Nof Ginossar along the Kinneret (Sea of Galilee), Bar Mitzvah at Katzrin, Golan Heights jeep tour, rafting down the Jordan, conversation with Arab students, lunch in Ramle at Samir's, home-made ice cream with David Leichman at Kibbutz Gezer, saying a she-hehchianu as we approached Jerusalem, a briefing from IRAC, a memorable visit to Hadassah Medical Center Ein Kerem, solemn visits to Mount Hertzl and Yad Vashem, a Bat Mitzvah at Robinson's Arch, tours of the Old City, Light & Sound show at the Tower of David, splashing through the water tunnels, learning & singing with Nava Tehila, meeting with Tamir Nir (Jerusalem City Council), archeological dig or Pardes Institute study & Nachlaot scavenger hunt, shopping in the shuk, Shabbat and hospitality dinner at Rosh Ha'ayin, and our final day at Masada, a Dead Sea float and farewell dinner.

Todah Rabah to Rabbi Mark & Courtney, our guide BG, and our bus driver Moshe, who led us throughout 10 days.

Yes, we did all that, and more did we mention food? friendships? people, connections, and memories????

Hadassah welcomes everyone from Temple, Sisterhood, Book Club, Chavurah, and Mavens to this event.

Invite your friends! Refreshments, of course!

Walk for Research

Sunday, October 9 @ 2:00 PM Miller Park (park @ Queen Street entrance across from Moore School)

$18.00 donation. This is a Hadassah National Initiative. Hadassah Medical Centers lead the world in life- saving research. Learn while we walk around the park.

