

WINSTON-SALEM CHAPTER OF HADASSAH SUMMER NEWSLETTER

A WALL IS JUST A WALL UNTIL IT HAS YOUR NAME ON IT! WALLS OF HONOR AT HADASSAH

Winston-Salem Hadassah proudly presented this certificate, representing your donation of $2500, to Barbara Goldstein, Deputy Director of Hadassah in Israel, Hadassah Medical Center, Ein Kerem.

Temple Emanuel travelers visited the new Sarah Wetsman Davidson Tower during our June trip. All our girls & women are HADASSAH members. Winston-Salem is honored to be added to the WALL OF PROMISE.

KOSHER HONEY FOR ROSH HASHANAH

Once again the Winston-Salem Chapter of Hadassah will be selling honey for Rosh Hashanah. The honey is made available through Rosh Hashanah Honey (formerly Katelyn's Honey). Each jar of honey retails for $15, but Hadassah is offering it to you for only $12 per jar (which includes shipping.) Such a deal!!

What a lovely gift this makes for loved ones and friends at Rosh Hashanah, as you support Hadassah's projects in Israel and the U.S. This year, orders can be placed online through September 1st at: www.rhhoney.com Please use the code w-shadassah to receive Hadassah's special pricing.

If you have any questions please contact: Shelley Starman-Onsrud (Fundraising VP for W-S Chapter of Hadassah) at starmanway@gmail.com or by phone at 704-929- 6644

Chapter Fall Calendar: Dates are not firm yet, but we are planning the following events

September: Israel Trip slide show & recollections by participants, with Courtney Anthony, at Temple Emanuel.

October 9: Walk for Research (National Initiative) Miller Park, $18. Hadassah leads the world in life- saving research.

November: Guest speaker, Dr. Renee Tegeler, will present a program on the correlation between health, healing and art, using examples of her creativity.
