Hadassah Progressive Dinner Sukkah Hop

Celebrate Sukkot by having a 4 course meal at different sukkahs while enjoying the good company of friends. While traveling from one sukkah to another, you will learn about what Hadassah is accomplishing in our community, in our country, and in Israel.

The SukkahHopt is on October 1st from 7:00-9:00 p.m. Starting and ending at the home of Jessica Kullock, 3809 Richland Avenue, with parking at West End Synagogue. $15 couvert. RSVP to NashvilleHadassah@hotmail.com by September 30th so we know how many people to expect.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE What We're About

Free Sons of Israel Cemetery; Chicago, IL

Jacob J. Litt, born 1811 in Rotterdam, Holland, is interred in one of the old Jewish cemeteries in Chicago, IL. Delphine was born in Amsterdam. This was the first time I had seen our family gravesites - wives, brothers, sisters, sons and daughters of centuries past - names beyond reckoning. Gravestones wearing softly even while I visit them today in the sunshine.

This is what we're about - what Hadassah is about. How did we get to this day, life-giving, sustained and sustaining our world? One generation at a time, that's how.

Just as we honor each other in the present day, our foremothers and fathers are honored. Hadassah was created by those long gone, but the vision is sustained by each generation. We each step up to accomplish more good in the world, and look what Hadassah means worldwide now!

Hadassah members have touched hands in this way for more than 100 years. Each generation of younger women see things and do things in their own way, a new age, our mission fulfilled at one time and expanding to the next. We are so proud to have generations of Hadassah women working together!

Please be on the lookout for the Young Hadassah Women's announcements. Nili Friedman is gathering friends and colleagues to join her in the next expansion of Hadassah accomplishments!

I hope your year will be loving, nurturing, exciting, prosperous, glorious and fun - may all good things come your way!!

Hadassah hugs,
Leslie

P.S. I hope to see you all at our Donor celebration on October 25 honoring Bobbie Limor, and indulging ourselves at the Sukkah Hop Progressive Dinner on October 1!

THANK YOU

Thank you to Bobbie Limor for her generous donation to Hadassah in honor of her becoming a Woman of Valor. Her donation will be earmarked for Camp Judaea (Hendersonville, NC) Scholarships.
