

CLASS OF THE MONTH

WITH MARK LEVY

SONGS OF PEACE, CHANGE, AND PROTEST

Jews have ever been at the forefront of social and political movements. In this class we will hear songs by labor, feminist, peace, and environmental activists of the last 125 years written by Jewish songwriters which inspired many to action.

We welcome back Mark Levy who has performed and taught in the Bay Area for over 25 years. He has appeared throughout the country and internationally as a singer and lecturer.
