FROM DARKNESS THERE IS HOPE

Heidi Cherry is a retired marketing executive and college professor who lectures to south Florida students about her father's experiences. "We cannot change the past, but we can change the future."

Deena Dlusy-Apel and Max Beer, Canadian filmmakers, are documenting the experiences of survivors and their children to prove that the Jewish people are determined to survive.

Elyse Wolff serves on the NJ State Holocaust Education Commission and is spearheading the organization of a 3GNJ (third generation) group in order to train members to tell their grandparents' stories.
